Do a 180. Consider Bermuda Run, North Carolina!

Planning a soccer, lacrosse, field hockey, ultimate Frisbee, or other type of sports tournament?

Looking for a unique corporate event or business meeting venue?

Wanting small-town convenience with world-class amenities?

If you're organizing a sports tournament, corporate event, or business meeting, and only thought you could get the best results in a metropolitan setting, you need to Do A 180 and take a look at Bermuda Run, North Carolina.

Bermuda Run is a small town with some pretty big options for hosting a sports tournament at BB&T Sports Park, or a corporate event at WinMock Conference & Special Events Center.

Located just 10 minutes west of Winston-Salem, N.C. at Exit 180 on I-40, Bermuda Run is quickly becoming one of the Southeast's premier sports tournament and business conference destinations.

Bermuda Run's convenient accessibility to points north, south, east and west make it a great centralized location for people coming from multiple destinations.

Other advantages of Bermuda Run's location include:

- No "big city" traffic to navigate.
- Parking at all venues is plentiful.
- Lodging at the Hampton Inn Bermuda Run, and other options are just minutes away.
- A variety of chain, local, and world-class restaurants.
- A new state-of-the-art healthcare complex at Wake Forest Baptist Health's Davie Medial Center, complete with an Emergency Department and 50 bed inpatient wing. For sports tournament organizers, this is peace-of-mind you can't find in many locations.
